22.29 Councillor Reports

22.29.1 HDC – DW report was read:

‘As I have mentioned in the past Hambleton new Crematorium, known as Maple Park, is now up and running, being the first in the country to be electrically powered, making it the most carbon efficient possible.

Treadmills, i.e. the old prison in Northallerton, is entering its final phase with the building of an “Every man” cinema.

At the County Council elections, I am pleased to report that I was elected as County Councillor for the Bedale division, which includes Carthorpe. We say goodbye to Annabel Wilkinson, and not only would I like to thank her for her work on the old County Council, but also I am very aware I have a high standard to achieve to equal her. The County Council will last until 31st

March 2023 then all Councillors will become members of the new Unitary Council and Hambleton District and the old County Council will end.'

22.30 Review of Correspondence Received

22.30.1 YLCA updates, 20's Plenty have all been circulated.

22.31 Matters for Discussion

22.31.1 CIL Project Update

Speed Signs – Installation of the speed signs is complete. Await the final invoice. Anticipate approximately £1000 CIL funds will remain for future projects. All agreed we should look back at which other projects received votes from residents.

JJ

22.31.2 Platinum Jubilee 2 June 2022

An update was given – building clean; beacon to be manufactured this week; HECK providing the BBQ & meats; lighting gratefully sponsored by The Paper Box. Ticket sales to be promoted by all. Requests for assistance will be sent w/c 30.05.22

JJ

22.31.3 Grass Cutting

All agreed that the area around the bench on the western approach to the village needs to be tidied up. Ryan to be asked if he would cut the grass. A tree in the hedge line is in danger of falling onto the Kirklington road. To be reported to NY Highways via the portal and a telephone call.

CC

MH/JJ

22.31.4 Footpaths

JJ reported on the meeting held with NY Footpaths Officer & Ranger following KB's letter objecting to the 'closure' of a footpath on CC's land. The Officer advised that the crossing of the gutter was not a footpath and therefore no action could be taken. JJ reported that negotiations had taken place with CC & Mr Penty (land owner on the other side of the gutter) and both had agreed to a permissive way if NY provided a means to cross the gutter at the site of the footpath. NYCC investigating the cost of this.

JJ

The NY Ranger and a group of volunteers are to survey all footpaths on 27.05.22.

MH

NY Footpaths Officer to be asked to make a presentation to public at the Open Meeting.

JJ

22.31.5 The Chairman wished to thank Keith Bartlem for his service to Carthorpe PC over the last few years (KB stepped down at the election). Also, thanks to Cllr Annabel Wilkinson who has moved within NYCC and will no longer cover our area. The input and assistance of both will be missed.

There being no other business the meeting closed at 8.25pm.
The next meeting will be the Open Meeting to be held on Monday 13 June 2022 at Carthorpe Community Hall.
